

Challenging Environment

Material taken from God's Design for Sex Series, Stan and Brenna Jones, Nazarene

Young people starved for love are more likely to seek having their needs met through sexual experimentation than kids who know they are loved. We need to be strengthening close parent-child relationships, healthy friendships, and a future.

N
E
E
D
S

Do we teach children to value purity and obedience to God? Or do we let kids learn from the world about immediate pleasure, looking "cool" and fitting in.

V
A
L
U
E
S

Our young people know the core biological facts, but do they also understand how God Himself looks at sex and where sexuality fits into what it means to be a godly man or woman?

B
E
L
I
E
F
S

Are we giving our children the abilities to resist peer pressure, stand up for what is right, build meaningful friendships, and form loving relationships as adults?

S
K
I
L
L
S

Are we helping children grow in the right direction by keeping our relationships with them strong and loving? Do they have a "good" peer network? Are we helping them to grow and stay close to Jesus?

S
U
P
P
O
R
T
S

